

MEDIA RELEASE

11AM AEDT Thursday 29 February 2024

Giving young people the opportunity to discover and plan their career in Australian music

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA - youth music organisation The Push today announces the 2024 dates and locations of its annual Music Careers Expo - a free, one-day event that gives young people the insights and information on how to get a start in the Australian music industry.

Taking place in Queensland, South Australia and Victoria this August, the Music Careers Expo will demystify everything you need to know about a career in music.

Featuring workshops, presentations and information stalls, the Music Careers Expo is a fun and interactive way for you to learn about the various career pathways in music, as well as meet one-on-one with artists, industry practitioners and education providers who can provide you with tailored advice.

If you have a passion for Australian music and want to pursue a career in the industry, the Music Careers Expo is for you.

Secondary schools across Queensland, South Australia and Victoria are encouraged to bring student groups to this free, one-day event.

More details about presenters, workshops and other event activities will be announced soon.

"The Push is thrilled to be returning to Queensland, South Australia and Victoria for our fourth year of delivering the Music Careers Expo. The Music Careers Expo legitimises a career in music for young people, and is key to expanding young people's understanding of the many pathways that exist. Now more than ever, the Australian music sector needs to nurture a pipeline for young music industry practitioners and artists, and the Music Careers Expo directly responds to this need.”

- Kate Duncan, CEO, The Push
