The Push announces competition winners joining the All-Ages Tour across the suburbs of Melbourne next month!

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA - After receiving hundreds of submissions from young musicians across Victoria, 14 young artists have been selected to join the line-up for The Push's All-Ages Tour this May - giving them a massive opportunity to perform their music to young audiences across the suburbs of Melbourne next month.

They will be joining the 2023 tour with Thelma Plum, Mallrat, The Terrys, Cub Sport, King Stingray, Jaguar Jonze, Teenage Dads, Teen Jesus and the Jean Teasers, Cry Club, The Vovos, Tia Gostelow, South Summit, and JACOTÉNE.

Competition winners for the 2023 tour are:

- Friday 5 May - Brighton Town Hall: EMEREE & OCD
- Sunday 7 May - Thornbury Theatre: Angela Lane & O AERIAL
- Friday 12 May - Box Hill Town Hall: Speed Mullet & Tamara and The Dreams
- Saturday 13 May - Glen Eira Auditorium: Karen Took the Kids & Ramona Sky
- Friday 19 May - Hawthorn Arts Centre: Aydan & Mathilde Anne
- Friday 26 May - Clayton Hall: Munchy Dolphin & Kitty Rae
- Saturday 27 May - The Centre Ivanhoe: Soft Plastic & Vending Machine Repairmen

As a part of the Victorian Government's On The Road Again program, the seven-date tour is being staged and programmed by teams of local young people, through the Victorian Government FReeZA program - a youth development initiative that provides young people with industry skills and experiences in staging events in their local communities.

"The Push is committed to making sure more young people have the opportunity to participate and thrive in Australian music. By giving these young artists a chance to take the stage with huge artists like Thelma Plum and King Stingray, they can increase their confidence on stage, grow their audiences and build their music careers," says The Push CEO, Kate Duncan.

Tickets for the All-Ages Tour are $30 (plus booking fees) are on sale now through Moshtix. Visit thepush.com.au/events for more info and to buy tickets.

All shows are all-ages, drug, alcohol, smoke and vape-free, fully supervised events.
